

STARR KING

SCHOOL FOR THE MINISTRY

A New Offering from Starr King School for the Ministry

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST STUDIES

Starr King School is pleased to offer a Graduate Level Certificate in Unitarian Universalist Studies entirely through low-residency study.

WE DESIGNED THIS CERTIFICATE FOR YOU!

- exploring the possibility of entering Unitarian Universalist ministry?
- seminarian at a non-UU theological school?
- interested lay person?
- UU religious educator pursuing credentialing?

Certificate program faculty is comprised of Unitarian Universalist ministers, scholars, and progressive people of faith.

REGISTER AND PAY FOR COURSES AS YOU GO

Complete your certificate through any combination of six courses (18 units) in UU Studies, whether taken on-line or through short intensives offered in Berkeley. (High-residency students in the Certificate Program may include in-residence courses for fulfilling certificate requirements.) For more information, contact recruitment@sksm.edu. See course descriptions and course tuition information at www.sksm.edu/academics.

SAMPLE UU STUDIES COURSES:

Online Courses

- Dynamic Youth Ministry
- Adult Faith Development
- Promised Lands and Immigrants
- Systems Thinking and Leadership
- Unitarian Universalist History
- Mental Illness and Oppressions
- Our Theological House
- Global Religious Traditions

Intensive Courses

- Unitarian Universalist Social Action:
For Such a Time as This
- Unitarian Universalist History

Immersion Courses

- North American UU History: Boston Immersion
- UU Polity Immersion at General Assembly

How to Enroll in Your Starr King Certificate Program

Visit our website at: www.sksm.edu/academics and enroll online.

Questions?

Contact Crystal H. Weston,
Recruitment, Marketing, and Communications Director, at recruitment@sksm.edu.

Educating Unitarian Universalist ministers and progressive religious leaders since 1904

2441 LE CONTE AVE, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA 94709-1209 www.sksm.edu