STARR KING PRESIDENT'S LECTURE

"Spiritual Fluidity: Towards Multi-Religious Theological Education"

Dr. Ibrahim Abdurrahman Farajajé, Provost and Professor of Cultural Studies and Islamic Studies, SKSM; Respondent: Rev. Dr. Rebecca Parker, President, SKSM

A spiritual aesthetics of fluidity, expressing UU respect for all the world's religions, arises when we strive to cultivate multi-religious understanding, counter oppressions, and create just and sustainable communities. Learn how we tap this fluidity and explore what it calls 21st century Unitarian Universalism and theological education to embody.
