

SKSM SYMPOSIUM 2014 DRAFT SYLLABUS

- Current SKSM degree students are asked to register on the www.skmsymposium.org site and also on Colleague to receive course credit. The Symposium is covered by your Degree Program Tuition. If you already registered on Colleague during Spring Pre-Registration, please also sign up through this website as we still need the rest of your information on housing, dietary needs, etc. Thank you!

Entering SKSM Degree Students are asked to register on the www.skmsymposium.org site and also register for the course through the SKSM website as a "Special Student", as they are not yet matriculated as GTU students. The Symposium is completely free of charge.

Course Credit

Symposium 2014

Dr. Ibrahim Abdurrahman Farajajé

Wednesday-Thursday; August 27-August 28, 2014

Starr King's third Symposium, will be held on August 27-28, 2014.

- This urban retreat is an annual gathering of our entire student body, faculty, staff and trustees for two days of learning, ritual, celebration, food, music, community-building and service.
- This 2014 Symposium is led by Provost, Dr. Ibrahim Abdurrahman Farajajé in collaboration with other SKSM faculty and community leaders. Starr King students are requested to enroll.
- Graduates are warmly invited to participate.
- Several public events in connection with the Symposium are open to all.
- Travel fellowships for low residency students available. Look for the full program, which will be posted online and distributed in Spring 2014.
- This is a required course for all SKSM students. Students please go to the Symposium Leaders tab and select "Recommended Reading" section of this website to see what reading is required before Symposium.
- 1.5 units of credit will be given to students who are currently enrolled in a degree program.
- In order to obtain credit, students must read all required readings before Symposium, SIGN the attendance roster for each event, and be active in large and small group discussions.
- In addition, students are asked to work at least ONE work shift before or during Symposium. Making certain that you are signed in is the student's responsibility.
* Everyone is required to complete the Registration Form, so we can prepare for your presence and address any special needs.
- For further information, please contact Dee Ward, Coordinator of Academic Programs (dward@sksm.edu).