

Credit Hour Policy

Starr King follows the federal guidelines of “credit hour” as a minimum of one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and an additional minimum of two hours of out of class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester of credit, most commonly a total of approximately 135 hours of work for each 3-credit course. We share this federal guideline in course planning, we share it with students during their orientation, in our school forms, and in academic advising.

All of our courses are planned to follow the federal guidelines. With our school’s core commitment to educating students to counter oppression and build just communities, it is helpful that it is becoming more common to use the term “time on task” instead of “classroom and out of classroom” work. “Time on task” fits our seminary’s social justice and spiritual formation paradigm that includes classroom work, on-line and experiential activities, as well as a broad range of “...other academic work leading to the award of credit hours” (34 CFR 600.2) including:

- Lectures
- Reading
- Writing
- Film and other multimedia
- Class discussion
- Skills-building and practice
- Individual or group projects
- Student presentations
- Applied learning in the community, congregation, etc.
- Immersion experiences
- Creative work
- Reflection
- Spiritual formation
- Quizzes or exams
- Meetings with the instructor
- Participating in an event (e.g., conference, workshop, etc.)

During our Fall and Spring 15-week semesters, we offer a wide range of credit-earning opportunities. In addition to on-campus classes, Starr King offers on-line synchronous and/or asynchronous classes, hybrid classes (by which we mean that some students are physically in a smart classroom while some students are participating from off-campus using Zoom).

During these semesters, we also offer contextual/experiential courses such as internships, field education, clinical pastoral education (CPE), and course-embedded immersion courses. In addition, Starr King Individualized Learning courses (SKILs) allow for individual or small group learning experiences.

During our Winter and Summer intensives, we offer some of our school’s required core courses as well as elective courses in an intensified format. The 3 credit intensives consist of 40 hours of classroom time (synchronous and asynchronous) with extensive pre-course reading/writing/reflection and post-course writing/project assignments. The course can take place over one or two weeks (FT or PT).

In courses that have variable credits decided on by students and instructor (e.g. SKILs and field education) there are specific prompts on the students' course proposal forms that include the 45 hours of "time on task" per credit hour and the credit hours are decided by instructor and student.
